-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Double Patenting

1. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

2. Claims 33, 34, and 48 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 1 of U.S. Patent No. 6,165,195. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the relatively broad subject matter claimed in the instant application such as an expandable member proximal to the distal end of the catheter; a tracking guide wire lumen extending within the catheter to received the guide wire and a positioning guide wire lumen extending along the catheter to received the positioning guide wire, which clearly would have been obvious in view of the relatively detailed subject matter of the patent claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

Art Unit: 3731

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

4. Claims 33, 34, and 48 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Richter et al. (U.S. 5,755,734).

5. Richter et al. discloses the claimed invention in figures 13-20, an expandable member (balloon) (175) disposed on the distal end of catheter (170); a tracking guide wire (155) received within a tracking guide wire lumen, wherein said tracking guide wire lumen disposed within the catheter (170); a positioning guide wire (156) disposed within a positioning guide wire lumen, which said positioning guide wire lumen associated with the expandable member (175 or 176), wherein at least a portion of the positioning guide wire lumen (with guide wire (156)) are located external to the expandable member (175) and wherein the proximal ends of the tracking wire (155) and positioning guide wire (156) extend out of the patient's body so that they can be manipulated the distal ends of the tracking wire (155) and positioning guide wire (156).

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 35-47 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

7. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: None of the prior art of record disclose or suggest the position guide wire lumen extends through the catheter from the catheter proximal end to a point proximal to the expandable member and wherein its extends along an outer surface of the catheter and onto the expandable member.

Conclusion

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Mauch (U.S. 6,780,174) discloses a bifurcated catheter assembly and Callol et al. (U.S. 6,749,628) discloses a bifurcated stent catheter.
